GOLD STANDARD OF EVENTING

Welcome to Brechin Castle Horse Trials

New to the BE calendar for 2025, Brechin Castle Horse Trials are brought to you by the team at Auchlishie Events who also run the Kirriemuir Horse Trials. Auchlishie are a small team and a huge amount of hard work has gone into setting up at this new venue and we're very grateful to all of our sponsors and competitors for their continued support.

A huge thanks must go to Dalhousie Estates for the permission to run the event and their continued support of the sport at grassroots level.

As always with these events we could not run without our huge army of tireless volunteers who make the day run as smoothly as possible.

I wish everyone taking part today the best of luck

James Helyer Organiser.

The organisers retain the right to:

- Divide any class
- Cancel any class or event

Reservation of Right

The organisers of this event have taken all reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the Organisers and all the Officials and Stewards. The BE Steward may take such action as he feels necessary to protect the health/safety of horses/riders or anyone attending the Horse Event. All riders must ensure that they, and their horses, are fit to compete in the class for which they have entered.

Exhibitors

All exhibitors are responsible for the safety of their own stands and the risks that they may pose to other persons within the allocated space or immediate surrounding areas. This is subject to monitoring by the Health & Safety Steward and Organiser.

Forbidden Assistance

Any intervention by a third party, whether solicited or not, with the object of facilitating the task of the rider or helping his horse, is forbidden, under penalty of elimination, at the discretion of the BE steward. In particular, it is forbidden for a fence judge or official to call back or assist a competitor by directions, to rectify an error of course.

Motorbikes and All-terrain vehicles

The use of motorbikes and all-terrain vehicles is banned except for authorised officials. Anyone found riding a motorbike or all-terrain vehicle without permission will be asked to leave the event.

Advice to the public

The organisers of this event advise that due to the uneven and, in parts, irregular terrain at this event it may be difficult to move freely and easily, as a result of which, it may not be suitable for those spectators who suffer from certain medical conditions. All spectators enter the event at their own risk and are advised to wear suitable footwear. The organisers shall not incur any liability, except as required by law, in respect to any injury or damage to spectators or their property howsoever caused.

One Day Eventing Explained

Dressage

The dressage phase, which is held first, is made up of an exact sequence of movements, each movement marked out of a maximum score of 10. It is ridden in a semi-enclosed grass arena, which is 20 x 40m, for a national ODE, larger (20 x 60m) for an international event. In a ODE, the test is marked by a judge situated at the top, in the middle of the short side (20m), at marker C. More than one judge marks an international test, and they are situated at varying points of the arena. The judges are looking for balance, rhythm and suppleness and most importantly, obedience of the horse and like to see it working as one with its rider. The reason for the dressage test is to demonstrate that the horse and rider have the correct training to perform individual movements in a graceful, controlled, relaxed and precise manner and are prepared for the exactness of the Show Jumping and rigours of the Cross-Country test to follow. Once the rider and horse have completed their Dressage test, the marks are totted up and any errors of course deducted, which is then converted into penalty points. The marks are converted to a percentage of the maximum possible score, multiplied by the coefficient for that test, then subtracted from 100.

Show Jumping

Show Jumping tests the technical jumping skills of the horse and rider, including suppleness, obedience, fitness and athleticism. In this phase, 8-20 fences (depending on the level of the event) are set up in an arena, (usually on grass in Britain). Show jumps can be knocked down, unlike cross country fences and penalties are given for any poles that fall. This phase is also timed, with penalties being given for every second over the time set by the course designer. In an international or 3DE, Eventing Show Jumping tests the fitness and stamina of the horse and rider following the previous day's cross country test.

Cross Country

Both horse and rider must be in excellent physical shape to complete the cross country test. The horse and rider will have practiced or "schooled" over several different types of cross country fences before competing to develop braveness, experience and trust. In Britain there are six levels of affiliated Eventing which cater for all levels of horse and rider, and they range from 80cm Training classes through to 1.20m Advanced classes.

Combinations jump 18-22 fences, (BE80, BE90, BE100), more at the higher levels, all designed and built along an outdoor circuit. The fences are solidly built natural objects (logs, stone walls) as well as other various obstacles such as ditches, drop fences and banks and combinations, which test the accuracy and training of the horse and rider. Leading the way on safety in the sport, Britain pioneered the frangible pin system which is fixed to upright rails, allowing part or all of the jump to drop down if hit with enough force. Horse and rider will need to finish the course within a certain time limit, or "optimum time" which is announced on the day of the competition for that particular course. For example at BE80(T) competition, horse and rider need to be travelling at 435 metres per minute, to come within the optimum time. Speed is a factor, with the rider required to cross the finish line within a certain time frame (optimum time). Crossing the finish line after the optimum time clocks up time penalties for each second over.
